

TELEGRAPHIC.

WINNIPEG, July 4, '98.

Washington, July 3.—Cervera made a last characteristic and picturesque dash out of Santiago harbor early this morning.

Some of his warships which were lying in the harbor made steam and headed for the mouth. Three were run hard on the beach at the entrance and were fired by their crews. Magazines were exploded and total wrecks made of them. The fourth ship with Admiral Cervera aboard, passed the Merrimac wreck and reached the open sea. Several ships from the blockading squadron at once started in pursuit and there is not one chance in a hundred for her escape.

Washington, July 3.—It is reported here, from what is deemed reliable authority, that Admiral Sampson's fleet to-day engaged the fleet of Admiral Cervera and entirely destroyed it. Later, the following dispatch was received at the war department, Playa del Este. The signal officer confirms the statement that all the Spanish fleet except one warship has been destroyed and is burning on the beach. The affair was witnessed by Capt. Smith, who told the operators that there is no doubt of its correctness. (Signed) Allen, signal officer.

The following cable dispatch was given out at the White House afterwards: Playa del Este, July 3d.—The destruction of Admiral Cervera's fleet is confirmed. (Signed) Allen, telegrapher.

Washington, July 4th.—At midnight the following statement was given out at the White House: Shafter telegraphs: Playa del Este, "Early this morning I sent a demand for the immediate surrender of Santiago, threatening to bombard the city. I believe the place has surrendered." This contradicts the report that Shafter has fallen back. The dispatch from Shafter reads as follows: "Camp near Seville, July 3d. To Secretary of War, Washington: We have the town well invested to the north and west, but with a very thin line. Upon approaching it we found it of such character and defenses so strong that it will be impossible to carry it by storm with our present forces. Our losses up to date aggregate a thousand, but list has not yet been made. There is but little sickness outside exhaustion from the intense heat and exertion of battle on Friday and the almost constant fire which was kept on us from the trenches. The wagon road to the rear was kept open up with some difficulty on account of the rains, but we will be able to use it for the present. General Wheeler is seriously ill and will probably have to go to the rear to-day. General Young is also very ill. He is confined to his bed. General Hawkins was slightly wounded in the foot during a sortie the enemy made last night, which was handsomely repulsed. The behavior of our troops was magnificent. General Garcia, as reported, holds the railroads from San Luis. He burned the bridge and removed the rails. General Pando has arrived at Palma. The French consul with about 400 French citizens came into Garcia's line yesterday from Santiago. I have directed the Cubans to treat them with every courtesy possible. (Signed) Shafter, major general.

LATER.

Washington, Official despatch received. Sampson says the entire fleet of Cervera is destroyed. Cervera is prisoner, also 1,000 of his men.

There is great excitement in the United States to-day.

General Shafter's army is short of surgeons.

Centrists all demand amendments to the German constitution.

Four young men were drowned at Hamilton and two at Toronto.

A stereotyping strike at Chicago has stopped the publication of daily papers.

It is reported that Russia, Germany and France have agreed on a Philippine policy.

The first Manila expedition captured the Ladrone Islands and arrived at Manila on July 1st.

EDMONTON SPORTS.

Dominion day sports opened on Thursday morning, June 30th, and notwithstanding previous rainy and threatening weather, they enjoyed two unbroken days of bright sunshine. A few drops of rain fell on Friday evening while the team bicycle race was in progress, which somewhat marred the interest in this event, but otherwise the weather was all that could be desired. About 1,500 people were on the ground on Thursday and fully three thousand on Friday. The receipts were so satisfactory that at three o'clock on Friday the gates were made free. It speaks highly for the honor of Edmonton people that although a two rail fence was all that surrounded the track for the greater part of its length the gate receipts were so satisfactory. Everything passed off in the most orderly manner. The only important event advertised which did not take place was the three minute trot and this was replaced by the gentlemen's team trot. A series of characteristic dances were given by about 50 Indians on Friday afternoon under the conductorship of W. H. Cooper, and there was a small display of fireworks in the evening. Great credit for the success of the sports is due to the executive and the several committees.

The members of the executive were: W. E. Edmondson, president; Jas. Gibbons, vice-president; J. K. Forbes, secretary; Jas. McDonald, treasurer; M. McCauley, M. L. A., F. F. Times, M. L. A., E. Looby, W. R. West.

Mile race.—1st, McCarthy, gold medal; 2nd, Winn, silver medal; Ramsay, Foss, McLeod, Calgary; Griesbach, Fort Saskatchewan; A. McLeod, S. B. McNamara, Edmonton; Lewis, South Edmonton. This race was very keenly contested. Winn led, with McLeod second on the last lap. When near the tape, McCarthy, who was fourth, spurred and came in a winner.

Team race.—1st, Lewis, Campbell, McNamara, Edmonton, three gold medals; 2nd, Ramsay, McLeod, Foss, Calgary. This race was billed at three miles, but in the first lap several horses and riders on the track threw four of the cyclists off. By a miracle none were injured. All mounted again and went around the second half mile and by that time those who had been thrown off had regained their places, but a halt was called and a fresh start made, with only a mile to go. The result was as above.

A team was expected from Fort Saskatchewan but did not appear.

The Edmonton association desires to express their pleasure at the visit of their friends from Calgary and elsewhere, and it is said that the visitors are well satisfied with the courtesy extended to them. The success of the bicycle meet is very largely due to the efforts of the chairman of the bicycle racing board for the Territories, S. B. McNamara. The local wheelmen hope to be in better position as to track and other accommodation before the next meet comes around.

A VICTORIA, B. C., Telegram of June 27th, says that a petition has been received by the provincial government from Glenora asking that a wagon road to Terlin Lake be built at once. It appears that the trail is in good condition but is not adequate for the travel offering, and unless a wagon road is soon provided the attempt to enter the Yukon by the Stikine route must be given up except by those travelling light.

CROW'S NEST LABOR.

The talks Messrs. Van Horne and Shaughnessy have recently been giving the newspapers regarding the treatment of laborers on the Crow's Nest pass do not improve the position of the company in the public mind to any great degree. Sir William Van Horne, in his remarks, chose to be jocular, and intimated that in railway construction camps there never were enough feather beds to go round. He took the ground that railway work necessarily involved hardship and that the hardships were no greater on the Crow's Nest work than on the main line of the C. P. R. In regard to this contention it is fitting to remark that even if the conditions on the C. P. R. main line were undesirable; an excuse existed for those conditions then, which does not exist now. That was a case of rush, through almost unknown country, far from any ordinary base of supplies. Certainly excuses might be put forward in that case which cannot be put forward in the case of the Crow's Nest road. In any case railroading methods have improved in many ways since the C. P. R. main line was built the world generally has improved; and people are not now ready to accept the same treatment of even railway navvies as they were then.

But it is not true that the conditions were no worse on the Crow's Nest railway than on the C. P. R. main line. Everyone knows that in the haste of that construction there was a carelessness of expense from which men derived some compensation for their extra discomforts, or were enabled to provide better for themselves. The leading feature on the Crow's Nest pass work, as everyone also knows, was niggardliness to the most extreme degree. So that there was no possible compensation for extra discomforts, and the men had no means with which to provide for their own comfort. It was that this condition of things should exist on the Crow's Nest work, in distinction from that prevailing on the C. P. R. main line, that Mr. Haney was employed as manager of construction by the C. F. R. instead of the work being let in large contracts. It is plain that a man working for $2.00 a day wages, or on a petty contract—station work, so-called—which would possibly yield him considerably more, may willingly put up with greater discomfort, or is in a better position to make himself comparatively comfortable at his own expense, than the man who only gets $1.50 a day, with all sorts of dockages against it, and who has no chance to get petty contracts at a paying rate. This expresses one great difference between the conditions on the Crow's Nest work and that on the main line. Another great difference is that on the main line if a man was discharged by one contractor he could get work from another one. That was not the case on the Crow's Nest work which was all under a single management. If a man was put off one contract he was not allowed to go on another, even if he wanted to—and there was very little object in wanting to. It was to prevent the freedom of the men, and consequent greater expense, that the C. P. R. chose to keep the construction in their own hands under a single manager; the sole purpose being to run down wages and accommodation to the lowest possible point. This is of course what they are pleased to designate as business; but laborers have rights as well as railway companies, and there is business from their point of view as well as from that of the company.

Mr. Shaughnessy in an interview given the Montreal Witness does not better the position of his company any. Speaking of the diphtheria cases he said they were heartrending. If any person had been guilty of cruelty in those cases the company would wish to see them punished. But the duty of punishment lay with the government. The men had not been taken into any camps on the way down because self preservation impelled the men at those camps not to let them in. If there was negligence or cruelty that might have been avoided under the peculiar circumstance the guilty parties should be punished. This all sounds very fine. But Mr. Shaughnessy overlooks the important fact that his company caused these men and all other laborers on the work to be docked 50c a month on the understanding that this money was to be used to provide medical attendance. For the very reason set forth by Mr. Shaughnessy as an excuse for the diphtheria patients being dragged to their death through a blinding snow storm, medical attendance without hospital accommodation is of little value. He knows that on the C. P. R. main line work, when the 50c a month was docked hospital accommodation was provided. He knows that the 50c a month received from the men for medical attendance was not paid out for such attendance, or if it was the money was handled most wastefully. The heartrending nature of these cases and the cruelty shown in regard to them did not arise from the circumstances at the time, but because the C. P. R. which took the men's money did not provide for their proper treatment when they were sick. It was not the teamster, who was to blame, not yet the men in the contractors' camps, nor even M. J. Haney, general manager—it was the directors of the C. P. R., who took the paltry 50c a month of laboring men and did not give them value for it. As to the desire of the C. P. R. to see justice done in the matter; it was at the instance of the manager of construction that the injunction against holding the inquest which would have brought out the facts and possibly have rendered the company liable for substantial damages, was obtained.

Mr. Shaughnessy further said it was because the wages offered were the highest in Canada that so many men flocked to the work. In the first place the wages offered were not high enough to induce enough good road-ers to flock to the work or it would not have been necessary for the agents of the company in Ottawa and vicinity to hire so many very undesirable men as they admittedly did, nor to make the false representations to such as they hired, as they admittedly did. And in the next place the wages offered had nothing to do with the case. It was the wages actually received that counted. And what they were can best be judged by the numbers flocking away from the work, notwithstanding the terrors of the police court which were invoked, and the effort to starve the men into submission by issuing orders to contractors along the line that they must not even give food to men leaving the work. On this latter point Mr. Shaughnessy is particularly strong. He said that to allow men leaving the work to receive food on their way out "would have the most demoralizing effect." That is to say, men would not be compelled by straight force of starvation to work for wages that left them in debt month after month, under conditions that bred diphtheria, and which would have disgraced a Mississippi plantation in the days of Uncle Tom. Of course, Sir William is entitled to his little joke about feather beds, under any circumstances.

But really, in all friendliness, these two very able managers of the C. P. R. would do better not to enter upon their own defence in the newspapers. They should leave that delicate matter in the friendly hands of the department of justice; which apparently is quite as willing and much more able to do their dirty work than they are themselves.

FROM NELSON RIVER.

H. Burbank, trader, of Peace River, arrived by way of the Landing on Monday. Mr. Burbank has a trading post on the east branch of Pine river about 90 miles up from Fort St. John. He guided a party of the Fresno party of prospectors over to the Nelson this spring. The members of the Fresno party who went this way were C. Haag, W. Haag, and W. R. Kelly. Other who joined them were B. E. Sears, R. C. Wigmore, and W. B. Bissan. These parties wintered at Fort St. John and took their supplies as far as Burbank's post by sleighs. To this point Mr. Burbank says there is a good pack trail. By the time they reached that point the snow had gone and they were compelled to pack across to the Nelson. As they had only nine horses and 5,000 pounds of supplies it was slow work, they having to double back in short stages for the loads. There was no trail from his post to the Nelson, but there had been an Indian trail at one time, and

Mr. Burbank got directions from the Indians by which he went. He and the Haag Bros. went through light and blazed a trail while the others followed with the loads. The Haag Bros. began cutting lumber with which to build a boat, awaiting the coming up of the rest of the party with the supplies. Mr. Burbank was six days in returning from the Nelson river to his post on Pine river. He estimates the distance at 80 miles, or between 160 and 170 from St. John. The country between Pine river and the Nelson is pretty heavily wooded, but there is plenty of feed for horses on the way. For part of the distance the woods have been burnt and there is considerable fallen timber which makes the travelling difficult. In a few years when most of this timber falls down it will be impossible to travel through it unless a trail is cut. He was informed by the Indians, however, that a somewhat longer route further to the east would have passed through less difficult country, being more rolling and more lightly timbered. There was some muskeg on the route which he followed, but nothing to hinder the cutting out of a good trail. The divide between the Pine river and the Nelson is very high and from the summit there is a grand view of the valley of the east branch of the Nelson and the walls of the canon of the west branch can be seen in the far distance. If a road were to be made from the Peace river at the junction of the Smoky to the Nelson by the St. John trail it would not be necessary to cross the deep valley of the Pine river. By turning northwestward after crossing what is known as the Big Muskeg, about forty miles east of St. John, the trail to his trading post would be easily reached. This trail passes up the west side of the Pine from Fort St. John and crosses it to the east side below the forks, about 30 miles up. It then follows the east side of the east branch to the lakes in which Hay river heads, which is a favorite hunting ground of the Peace river Indians. He describes the course of the streams at the commencement of a stream given no assurance of its ultimate course.

Mr. Burbank has been nine years in the Peace river country chiefly in the vicinity of Fort St. John. He will return next week.

Wisdom in Food Selection.

The grave importance of the proper selection of Food products is already well known to the average housekeeper, who, to a great extent, has to rely entirely upon the dealer's word. Is it not a comfort, therefore, in possessing a perfect confidence in your supply house?

FIRST QUALITY DEMANDS CERTAIN VALUES.—To buy below those values, quality must be sacrificed. Is it not an ample recompense for any additional outlay in having the difference made up in quality? We think it is.

ATHABASCA TRANSPORT.

W. Clark, who has been piloting boats from Grand Rapids to Fort McMurray on the Athabasca this season, left Grand Rapids on June 21st and reached Edmonton on Wednesday last. He was five days making from Grand Rapids to the Landing, tracking a skiff with Otto Summers. He was delayed by rain or would have made it in four days. The present is the season of high water. The Athabasca is not as high as usual at this season and consequently the rapids have been more difficult. The Big Cascade has been portaged all season. This is the rule during seasons of low water but not during high water. Thirteen new steamboats have gone north from the Landing or are preparing to start. The first one got through the rapids to McMurray on June 31d. The list is as follows:

"Enterprise", stern wheel, 50 x 10 feet, drawing 18 inches.

A canvas propeller, 36 feet long, drawing 32 inches.

Sectional iron propeller, built in Detroit, 48 feet long. These three had reached McMurray safely on June 31d.

"Garden City", stern wheel, 50x10 feet, drawing 16 inches.

"Minnelahn", stern wheel, 50 x 8 feet, drawing 22 inches. This boat struck a rock in the Long rapid and was delayed two hours.

Ferncke's Chicago party, propeller, 45 feet, built by J. Walter. Over Grand Rapids safely.

"Alpha", Alaska Mining & Transportation Co., propeller, 40 feet.

Also hull of steamer 60 feet long by 12 feet beam, owned by the same company. The machinery was being taken on a flat boat and would be fitted in after passing the Fort Smith rapids. These two boats were through Grand Rapids.

"Sparrow", propeller, 60 feet long. Best built steamer on the river, all machinery in place, owned by Geo. T. Leitch. Hung up in Grand Rapids uninjured, waiting for a rise of water. She had fifteen passengers.

"Anna", propeller, 36 feet long.

"Daisy Bell", stern wheel, belonging to the Holt party, with two flat boats, at Pelican rapids, 120 miles from the Landing.

"Ebas", propeller, at Landing.

Ferncke's party with steamer 36 feet long, just launched at the Landing. Would try Lesser Slave river with a view of reaching Peace river. If they found that impossible they would go down the Athabasca.

Mr. Clark believes that all the steamers going down the Athabasca will get through the Grand rapids to McMurray and down to Smith portage without having to be portaged. At Smith portage the heavy machinery will have to be portaged 16 miles in wagons to the foot of the rapids and the steamers hauled across the three short portages with block and tackle. He does not consider the operation as likely to be difficult. All are bound for Peel river. The flat bottomed stern wheel boats are chiefly intended to aid in the down trip and may not be used afterwards, but the propellers are intended for permanent use on the Mackenzie and the Peel. Nine of the boats are propellers and four stern-wheelers. There is also machinery for two more steamers lying at the Landing, but may not be used this season.

Transportation facilities on the Fort Smith portage have been greatly improved this season. E. Nagle took down two teams of horses for use on the portage. The Alaska Mining & Transportation Co. took two teams, Colin Fraser, of Chipewyan, bought two yoke of oxen and a team of horses from persons coming down Peace river, and the H. B. Co. added 14 horses to their already large freighting outfit. Portage rates were reduced from a cent to half a cent a pound for the 16 miles.

Mr. Clark estimates that up to the time he left 130 boats had gone down the rapids. The first boats of the season, 56 in the fleet, reached McMurray on May 27th. The destination of fully three-fourths of those going down the Athabasca was Peel river and the remaining fourth the Liard river. Mr. Clark has full faith in the Mackenzie route, and will guarantee to take a party through to Dawson City in canoes in 60 days from Edmonton, carrying their own supplies for the trip, provided the start is not made not later than July 15th.

Regarding the blasting operations of last winter at Grand Rapids in which he was engaged, Mr. Clark says that the effort was to get a channel by which boats could be safely let down through the rapids along the east bank. There were three particular rocks which could not possibly be altogether avoided. He succeeded in getting out two of them, so that the third can now be avoided. In other seasons boats always struck on one of these rocks. This season no boat has struck on them. He also took out three rocks further down, which had also been greatly in the way. The two principal rocks removed were about twelve feet in diameter and required three blasts in each to remove them. He could not do more at the time owing to the ice being piled up over most of the rocks. He is satisfied from careful examination of the river that a channel could be cleared out on the east side of the river so as to let any boat which could land at the police detachment at the head of the rapids run through with its load; and is willing to take the contract to do this work for $2,500, no money to be paid until the work would be completed to the satisfaction of interested parties. He would require to get at the work about Sept. 15th in order to have the longest possible season of low water. The Grand rapid has no chutes. The difficulty is not the strength of the current as lack of depth of water, but that large boulders are scattered so thickly in the place where the channel should be as to render the passage of a boat very difficult. The improvement of the rapid so as to avoid the present wearisome portage is merely a matter of clearing out the boulders. But there are a good many of them and they are large.

BEAVER LAKE EAST.

If the BULLETIN would publish the current prices of butter and eggs regularly—say once a week—many country subscribers would be glad.

Crops look well. Those put in with a drill are a good deal ahead of the rest.

Mrs. Deby has been very ill for some time, but I am glad to hear is recovering.

I understand that Mr. Tims intends contesting Victoria at the forthcoming election. Mr. Tims has proved a useful representative and will probably be re-elected.

Donald McAllister removed to a location not far from the fort, having come to the conclusion that he could do better there.

A settler from Ontario, Jas. Stewart, arrived lately with his family, and intends to take up land here.

June 23rd, '98.

In my last I stated that the prospects for the re-election of Mr. Tims as M. L. A. for Victoria were good. Since then a change has occurred in those prospects, a change that, to my mind, puts an end to them entirely. I refer to the fact that Mr. F. W. Fane, of this place, has been requested to come out against Mr. Tims and has consented to do so. Mr. Fane is assured of such a strong support in the eastern part of the district that his election is about a foregone conclusion. Following as he does the business of farming and ranching, Mr. Fane is in a position to know the requirements of the farming community a great deal better than Mr. Tims possibly can, consequently they may reasonably expect to have justice done there so long as the former represents them at Regina. Mr. Fane is a gentleman of ability and education, is one of the best informed citizens of Alberta, and will fill the position with honor and credit should he be elected. As already stated, this result is about certain.

June 30th, '98.

He will probably join the party at Chipewyan, going down the Athabasca. Mr. MacDonald saw Mr. Chalmers at Slave lake. He said that his party would have the trail cut through in about four days more. Mr. MacDonald saw some loaded carts which had come through from Edmonton by the trail.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING

During a thunder storm on Tuesday last, June 28th, lightning struck a house at Lake St. Ann, near the H. B. Co. store. It came down the chimney, down the stove pipe into the stove, from the stove to the floor, and along the floor towards the wall. The stove was shattered to pieces. A boy about four years of age, son of Wellington Lee, was standing close to the stove. The lightning in passing from the stove to the floor struck his feet. One foot was burned badly, and the shoe torn off and the boy knocked senseless. Another child, a young man and four women who were in the house at the time were also knocked down. There was fire in the stove at the time it was struck and the place was filled with smoke when the adults recovered themselves. They got outside as soon as they could, the mother having enough presence of mind to find and take the child which had been struck and remained unconscious, for some time. Mr. Lee brought the boy to town for medical treatment and although his foot is calfskinned, he seems not much the worse otherwise. The rest of the parties are not much the worse.

MARKETS.

Butter, 10c, 12c and 15c, and plentiful for the several ordinary grades; 18c to 20c for special makes to farmers' customers.

Eggs scarce, at 12c to 15c.

Hay scarce, at $12 a ton; new hay is beginning to come in and the price will be down shortly.

Wheat, very little delivered; up to 55c a mill.

Oats, 25c to 30c.

Barley, 30c.

FUR SALES.

Since June 23rd:

Paul Bros., Peace River, to McDougall & Secord, $1,988.83.

H. F. Davis, Peace River, to Ullmans, $2,376.

Pierre Grey, Jasper House, to McDougall & Secord, $450.90.

G. Desjarlais, Lesser Slave lake and Peace River, to Ullmans, $9,210.

R. Logan, Beaver lake, to Ullmans, $85.15.

Very few small lots have been offered at private sale. The quantity of fur offering is somewhat less than last year, but as the prices are better it will probably realize about the same amount of cash.

FROM THE FINLAY.

F. M. Baker arrived in town on Wednesday last from Finlay river. He and three others were tracking their boat up the rapid at the mouth of the Finlay without portaging any part of the cargo. The boat upset in the rapid and almost all the cargo was lost. The other three men purchased a dug out canoe from an Indian and went on up the Finlay to join five Californians who had been on the Finlay for a year and a half, and on whose representations Baker and his friends went in. Baker came to Edmonton for more supplies. He left the mouth of the Finlay on June 15th and reached Edmonton Wednesday, June 29th. He is going back in about 10 days with three tons of supplies, which he will take to Ft. Graham by boat.

Geo. H. Wilson, managing editor of the Ottawa Evening Journal, visited Edmonton on Wednesday's train and went out on Thursday. Mr. Wilson has been on a trip to the coast and came up to Edmonton to learn what he could about the garden of the Northwest and the only all-Canadian route to the Yukon. He stopped a day at Lacombe on the way north from Calgary to visit relatives.

LACOMBE LINKS.

F. Ching, Mrs. Carter, Miss Carter and Mr. Gross went to Calgary on the 13th. Mr. Green, a leading lawyer of Red Deer, has started an office in town and will be here the first and third Wednesdays of every month. Mr. Laidlaw, of Ontario, was here spying out the land with a view of starting business. He has had 40 years experience in business in Ontario and would no doubt be of great help to any town.

Inspector Calder visited our school officially on the 16th. He advises a new school which will in all probability be erected this year. Immigration Agent Sutter arrived with ten delegates from different parts to view our district. They were highly delighted with the country and will no doubt report very favorably to their friends. Next spring they expect to return with a large number of families to locate. Mr. Draper, of Ontario, has bought a whole section of C. P. R. land about four miles out in the country. He has 100 head of cattle and intends to become a ranch man on a large scale.

Mr. Spears arrived from Manitoba with 200 head of cattle and has already sold 130 with good prospects for the rest.

A very large number of farm implements have been brought into Lacombe this spring and judging from the rapidity with which they are purchased the farmers must be feeling they are prospering.

Henry Reynolds gave a very pleasant birthday party last week at which a large number were present.

The Victoria Hotel was sold on the 22nd and bid in by Mr. Wells at $2,950. Lacombe possesses a new attraction, no less than a band. At present they are busy practicing for the Orange walk. Quite a number of open air concerts have been furnished for the citizens' amusement.

Mr. Harvey, under the auspices of the W. C. T. U., gave an interesting temperance lecture in the Methodist church on the 22nd. He must have been surprised to find that Lacombe did not possess a bar and had not since last March.

A union school picnic will take place on the 1st of July at Gull lake. As this is an ideal place for a picnic and a good opportunity given for boating no doubt many will embrace the opportunity.

The Orangemen of the surrounding towns who are going to unite with our lodge here will have their picnic at the Barnett lakes only three miles out of town on the 12th of July. These lakes are also very attractive to a lover of natural scenery.

A very successful garden party was given by the ladies aid in the Presbyterian church on Mr. Dan Gourley's grounds. The day was pleasant and a great many visitors were in town. A splendid programme of music and a very liberal supply of refreshments was furnished the guests.

The government cream station is again in operation and there is a strong probability of Lacombe starting a butter and cheese factory next summer. We have a man here who understands the business and has a very strong idea of making a venture along that line.

The co-operative store is becoming a thing of certainty. Subscriptions are coming in very fast and even some of the Red Deer citizens are taking shares. The stock is to be $10,000 in 500 shares at $20 per share. Mr. George Read will have charge, a man whose honesty and integrity are well known.

A new Methodist church will be dedicated on the 3rd July at Pleasant Valley, about eight miles east of Lacombe.

A number of our resident Englishmen, Messrs. Tipping, Springer, Plowright and Wigmore will give a guitar and mandolin concert in the Masonic Hall on the 20th. As these gentlemen are famed for their musical ability the town will get a great treat. June 27th, '98.

ANGUS RIDGE.

Mr. and Mrs. McRae were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson on Thursday.

A union picnic of the Sabbath schools in this district on Friday is expected to be a success.

The crops are not very promising here yet. Wheat in particular is very backward. We may, however, get a good rain which may make a big improvement.

Mr. Bush from Manitoba, is expected to arrive here shortly. The public school will not close till some time in July. We trust to see Rev. H. E. Gordon preach here the second Sabbath of July. June 25.
